The sun is shining, the birds are singing, and love is in the air! What could be a more breathtaking backdrop to romance than the famous Eiffel Tower in the "City of Love": Paris? Thanks to Unity® Via II Progressives enhanced with SunSync® Elite Light-Reactive Lenses, Roamy can smoothly segue from museums and boutiques to gardens and monuments—without having to change glasses. Shown here, laying out a sumptuous picnic on the Champs de Mars, Roamy pens a poem to their amour to celebrate the sweetest day.

What's your favorite way to celebrate Valentine's Day?
